Click Here

Miami dade judges

Judges for miami dade county. Miami dade judges procedures. Miami dade judges election 2024. Miami dade judges election. Miami dade circuit court judges zoom. Miami dade county judge salary. Miami dade judges on the ballot. Miami dade judges zoom. Miami judge. Miami dade judges calendar.

Lisa S. Walsh is an American judge serving on Florida's Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court since 2011. She was appointed by Governor Charlie Christ in 2008 to the Miami-Dade County Court, a position she later won through election. In 2011, she was appointed by Governor Rick Scott to fill a vacancy, initially for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court, a role she has retained through elections. Walsh's judicial career includes serving as Administrative Judge of the Appellate Division and a judge on the International Commercial Arbitration Court since 2017. She also serves in the Complex Business Litigation Division, handling complex business cases. Her tenure has been marked by high ratings from the Miami-Dade Bar, with her being the highest rated among 49 judges in 2024. Walsh's education includes a Bachelor of Science from Northwestern University (1988) and a Juris Doctor from the University of Miami School of Law (1992). Judge Walsh serves on Florida's Circuit Court Appellate Division and has been designated to sit on the Fourth District Court of Appeal. Her division handles appeals from county court decisions and administrative agencies. Meanwhile, the state's District Courts of Appeal hear circuit court appeals. Since 2009, Judge Walsh has been involved with the faculty and administration of several organizations, including Florida's Advanced Judicial College and the National Association of Women Judges, where she served as president from 2015 to 2016. Walsh previously worked in the Public Defender's Office for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit from 1992 to 2004 and in private legal practice from 2004 to 2008. She also served as a special master for the City of Miami Beach. Judge Walsh received her Bachelor of Science degree in speech from Northwestern University and her Juris Doctor from the University of Miami School of Law. She has been recognized with several awards, including being rated the most exceptional judge in the Miami-Dade Bar's Judicial Poll in 2024. In 2019, she was awarded the Community Service Award from the Greater Miami Jewish Federation and the Outstanding Woman in Government & Law award from the Miami-Dade Commission for Women. Walsh received the Florida Bar Young Lawyer's Division Outstanding Jurist Award in 2018, as well as the Judge Steven Levine Award and the Justice Vaino Spencer Leadership Award from the National Association of Women Judges. She was also recognized with the Dade County Bar Association President's Award as Outstanding Community Leader in 2017 and the Devorah Judge Award from the Miami Jewish Legal Society. In 2015, she received the Mattie Belle Davis Award and the Alumni Leadership Award from the University of Miami Law School. In 2010, she was awarded the Miami-Dade Bar Association's Judge Alan Schwartz Judicial Excellence Award. • Lisa S. Walsh is a judge and president of the Association of Women Judges. • She has been part of several organizations, including National Association of Women Judges, Miami-Dade Florida Association for Women Lawyers, Legal Services of Greater Miami, and Florida Bar Criminal Executive Council. • In 2019, she co-chaired a conference at Columbia University in New York. • Walsh has also served on the board of directors of Educate Tomorrow and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. • She was elevated to circuit court in 2011 and is now part of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court. Judge Lisa S. Walsh has received numerous awards and recognitions for her professional background and legal expertise. She was honored by various organizations, including The Florida Bar, the National Association of Women Judges, and the Greater Miami Jewish Federation.